Work-Based Learning Continuum

Where do we start?
STEP 1: Plan

1. Set Goals
2. Make a Work- Based Learning Calendar

Goals

Perkins

- Consider what is written in your school/district's Perkins plan regarding Work-Based Learning

District/ School Missions/Goals

- Consider your school/districts mission and goals as it may relate to work-based learning experiences for students.

Work-Based Learning State Goals

- Consider what the work-based learning goal included in the year end report states.

Sample Perkins Plan Goals:

- Increase the number of industry partnerships
- Increase the number of students from special populations who participate in work-based learning experiences.
- Offer work-based learning experiences that lead to high-wage, in-demand jobs.

Sample District Mission Goals:

Every student will be college and CAREER
READY.

Students will reach their potential to achieve academically, prosper economically, and contribute responsibly to society.

Sample WBL State Required Goals:

Improve access for all students to meaningful work-based learning opportunities that lead to future high-wage, in-demand careers.

Step 2: Innovate and Grow

- 1. Reflect on work-based learning experiences and how they can be improved or reinvented for the future.
- 2. Learn new skills and ideas to incorporate in the future experiences for students.
