What is Unification?

- ACTE State Associations/Division Affiliates/Chapters have two categories, unified and non-unified
- Members in unified states are required to belong to both the state and national ACTE; members in non-unified states can belong to the state or national ACTE, but are not required to sign up for both organizations
- Unified states are not charged for certain services, while non-unified states are charged for some services rendered by the national ACTE office

Benefits of Unification to Your Members

- Event and Product Discounts
 - Receive member-exclusive rates to state and national ACTE events, as well as discounts on CTE products and resources
- Awards
 - Achieve national recognition through ACTE awards programs that honor the most distinguished CTE educators
- Insurance
 - Obtain complimentary group life and AD&D insurance, and discounts on professional liability coverage
- Professional Development
 - Advance your career and invigorate your curriculum at state and national events, via webinars, resources and much more
- Techniques and CTE News-related Subscriptions
 - Receive a subscription to Techniques magazine, as well as to Career Tech Update and STEM SmartBrief. Members also receive Legislative Alerts and more!
- Networking
 - Cultivate relationships and exchange best practices with CTE teachers, administrators, business leaders and policymakers
